Model Course 1 [depart from Tokyo] Visiting the snow monkeys and a National Treasure

Tokyo (Narita International Airport) → Jigokudani Yaen-Koen → Otari Village → Zenkoji → Tokyo (Narita International Airport)

◆ Highlights
Jigokudani Yaen-Koen is famous for its wild monkeys that occasionally enjoy the hot springs, taken up by foreign media as well. On your way back to the airport, stop off at a National Treasure and one of the oldest Buddhist temples in Japan, Zenkoji Temple, to enjoy some Japanese culture.

Model Course 2 [depart from Tokyo] Enjoying the beautiful scene of the mountains

Tokyo (Narita International Airport) → Kamikochi → Otari Village → Kurobe Dam/Tateyama Kurobe Alpen Route → Tokyo (Narita International Airport)

◆ Highlights
Kamikochi, enveloped in the beautiful mountain scenery of some of the greatest mountains of Japan, provides excellent trekking as well. One of the highlights of this mountain sightseeing route that cuts through the Northern Japan Alps is Kurobe Dam, one of the largest hydroelectric dams in Japan. Traveling here is best from spring to autumn.

Model Course 3 [depart from Nagoya] Visiting a Japanese castle and World Heritage Sites

Nagoya (Chubu International Airport) → Matsumoto Castle → Otari Village → Shirakawa-go → Nagoya (Chubu International Airport)

◆ Highlights
Designated as a National Treasure, the beautiful exterior of Matsumoto Castle is so jet black that it earned another name; "Karasu-jo," Raven Castle. The gasshozukuri architecture of the Historic Villages of Shirakawa-go and Gokayama was registered in 1995 as a World Heritage Site, where you will enjoy many examples of uniquely Japanese architecture.

Model Course 4 [depart from Toyama] Visiting competition sites of the Nagano Winter Olympics

Toyama (Toyama Airport) → Kurobe Dam/Tateyama Kurobe Alpen Route → Otari Village → Hakuba Jumping Stadium → Nagoya (Chubu International Airport)

◆ Highlights
As the focal point of the 1998 Nagano Winter Olympics, Hakuba is dotted with a number of competition sites, including the Hakuba Jumping Stadium and the Snowharp cross-country ski course. Many people come to visit the area in the summer for mountain climbing and for holidays.
