1 "Toyota Commemorative Museum of Industry and Technology" bus stop MAP→A-1

1 Toyota Commemorative Museum of Industry and Technology

An interactive museum established by the Toyota Group. The museum is housed in a red-brick factory from the Taisho Period (1912 to 1926) that remains at the birthplace of the Toyota Group. The museum features many textile machines and Toyota's very first passenger car. You could "see", "surprise", "learn" through the dynamic exhibitions and diverse demonstrations, and enjoy with the entire family.

Adults: ¥500 → ¥400
Jr. and Sr. high school students: ¥300 → ¥240
Elementary school students: ¥200 → ¥160

9:30-17:00 (Last entry at 16:30)
Closed: Every Monday (or the following day if a national or substitute holiday falls on a Monday), year-end and New Year's holidays

2 "Noritake Garden" bus stop MAP→A-2

2 Noritake Garden

Visit the Craft Center to learn about ceramics-making processes and draw your own design on pottery, view Old Noritake products and design sketches on display at the museum, and enjoy shopping at multiple stores, all on verdant green grounds. When you have a spare moment, we also recommend taking a break at the cafe or restaurant, where you'll be served with Noritake tableware.

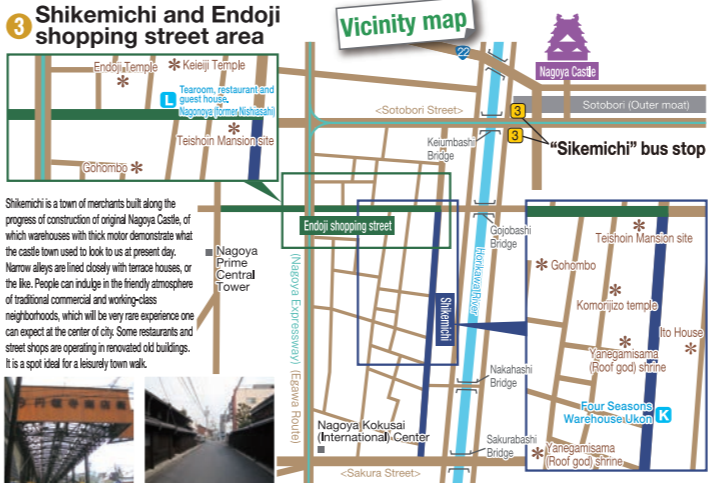

Craft Center/ Adults: ¥500 → ¥450
052-561-7290

Museum shop: 10:00-18:00 (Craft Center and Museum open until 17:00)

Closed: Mondays (or the following weekday, if Mon. falls on a national holiday or a substitute holiday), year-end and New Year's Day holidays

3 "Shikemichi" bus stop MAP→A-2

3 Shikemichi and Endoiji shopping street area

Shikemichi is a town of merchants built along the progress of construction of original Nagoya Castle, of which warehouses with thick motor demonstrate what the castle town used to look like at present day. Narrow alleys are lined closely with terrace houses, or the like. People can indulge in the friendly atmosphere of traditional commercial and working-class neighborhoods, which will be very rare experience one can expect at the center of city. Some restaurants and street shops are operating in renovated old buildings. It is a spot ideal for a leisurely town walk.

4 "Nagoya Castle" bus stop MAP→B-1

4 Nagoya Castle

Built by Tokugawa Ieyasu, this castle is a symbol of the city and hailed as "the castle makes what Owari-Nagoya makes what she is". Highlights of the castle are its castle tower crowned with golden shachihoko (killer whale) statues, the elegant Hommaru Palace and the gorgeous beauty of gardens throughout four seasons. While many buildings in the castle were burnt down during the Second World War, restoration work of the Palace was completed and opened to the public in 2018.

* The castle tower is closed at present.

● Sr. high school students and above: ¥500 → ¥400
Jr. high school and younger students: Free

9:00-16:30 (Last entry to the Hommaru Palace, however, is 16:00.)
052-231-1700 (Closed: Dec. 29th - Jan. 1st (It may vary depending on events, etc.))

Kinshachi Yokocho - Yoshinao Zone
(Area around the front-gate of Nagoya Castle)
Chance to indulge in the charm of Nagoya engendered by its history. Place where many shops gather, serving standard and specialized Nagoya cuisines of long established restaurants. (Business hours) 10:30 to 30 min. after closing the gates of Nagoya Castle
* Closing time varies in the seasons. Browse the website of Nagoya Castle.

Kinshachi Yokocho - Muneharu Zone
(Area around the east-gate of Nagoya Castle)
Highly motivated rising shops are gathered, from where new food culture of Nagoya is disseminated.

Yoshinao (Business hours) 10:30-22:30

5 "Nagoya Castle East/Shiyakusho (City Hall)" bus stop MAP→B-1

5 Nagoya Castle East Shiyakusho (City Hall)

"Main government office of Nagoya City"
Construction was completed on September 6, 1933, as a project to commemorate the coronation of Showa Emperor. The exterior design features a modern building crowned with tiled roofs in Japanese style. In harmony with Nagoya Castle. Shachihokos are placed at four corners of double-layered roof on the central clock tower. 53.5 m height. The interior also reflects the design of Hommaru Palace of Nagoya Castle. In 2014, the building was designated as an important cultural property, together with the neighboring main government office building of Aichi Prefecture.

11 "Hirokoji-Fushimi" bus stop MAP→B-3

16 Nagoya City Science Museum

The exterior design features "Brother Earth", a 35-meter-diameter planetarium, the largest in the world, and also, be sure to check out our four large-scale exhibitions featuring an aurora film shown in a -30°C room and a 9 meter tall manmade tornado!

These attractions are highly entertaining and allow museum visitors to experience the power of nature. Additionally, the building itself acts as an exhibit through the use of solar power, green walls, visible earthquake-resistant structures and elevator mechanisms.

● Exhibition rooms and planetarium / Adults: ¥800 → ¥720
College and Sr. high school students: ¥500 → ¥450
Jr. high school and younger students: Free
Exhibition rooms only / Adults: ¥400 → ¥360

Closed: Monday (if it is a holiday, the weekday just after the holiday), 3rd Friday every month (excluding August), December 29 through January 3.

6 "Tokugawaen, The Tokugawa Art Museum, Hosa Library" bus stop MAP→C-1

6 Tokugawaen

This Japanese garden features walkways winding around a central pond symbolizing the ocean. The waterfalls and streams use the differences in elevation to create an enjoyable, dynamic landscape. The park was once a residence of the Owari Tokugawa clan, and the vestiges of the old samurai manor can still be seen in the Kurumon gate at the entrance. Seasonal features of the park include peonies from the middle to the end of April, irises from the end of May to the middle of June, and the autumn leaves at the end of November.
